AND THE BIRDS RAINED DOWN

Il pleuvait des oiseaux

Jocelyne Saucier

A haunting meditation on aging and self-determination.

1916. In the woods of Northern Ontario rise the flames of the Great Fire of Matheson, one of many forest fires that ravaged the province. The young Boychuck narrowly escapes death, forever scarred by the sight of his homeland in ashes.

Decades later, a photographer takes interest in the survivors of those Great Fires. She will come to know some of them, venerable old hermits living deep in the woods still prizing their freedom.

A story of survival and dignity and a shining demonstration that love, hope and the desire to be free do not wither with age.
